

Warriors, Sailors end play with wins

DES MOINES — Both Columbus and the Waterloo Warriors finished their seasons with victories Sunday as the 13th Iowa High School Hockey League state tournament concluded at the Des Moines Ice Arena.

The Warriors rallied to defeat Mason City, 4-3, on Tom Meyer's short-handed goal in overtime for fifth place. Then the Sailors nailed down third place for the second straight year, defeating Sioux City by a 3-2 margin. Ben MacLennan, who had an outstanding tournament for Columbus, hammered home the game-winner with 4:08 to play.

Valley-Dowling, meanwhile, blasted Dubuque 9-0 to successfully complete a 23-0 season and defend the state tournament title it won last year. Tigers Tony Dressen and James McGalliard were named co-most valuable players.

Dressen scored three goals in the final and McGalliard made 24 saves to lead the romp past the Devils.

Columbus Coach Mike Brown was named Coach of the Year and the Sailors also took home the sportsmanship award.

After dropping a one-goal game to Dubuque in the semifinals, the Sailors found themselves down, 1-0, after one period Sunday. They tied it on Jussi Aalto's goal in the second period and escaped a dangerous situation early in the third by killing off nearly two minutes while skating two men short.

Columbus took the lead when Corey Simon knocked in a power play shot 4:53 into the third, but Sioux City drew even with 9:05 to play. Then MacLennan delivered the winner.

The Warriors followed a similar route past Mason City, falling behind 2-1 after the opening 15 minutes. Tracy Henn, with an assist from Meyer, tied it in the second, but the Mohawks forged back into the lead.

Mike Geraighty then got the Warriors to a 3-3 tie with a power play shot midway through the third to set up Meyer's winning goal.

Meyer and defenseman Jeff Frazee were named to the all-state team selected by coaches and league
