

Late goal lets East win high school all-star game

Special Dispatch to The Register

OMAHA, NEB. — Ben MacLennan of Waterloo Columbus scored with 28 seconds left Tuesday to lift the East past the West, 10-9, in the Iowa high school hockey all-star game.

The game preceded the United States Hockey League all-star game.

MacLennan's goal, his second of the game, came after several saves by East goaltender K.C. Doland.

The West had taken a 9-8 lead when Don Widlund of Urbandale-Des Moines and Andrew LeTourneau of Valley-Dowling scored 50 seconds apart in the third period.

But the East's Justin Smith scored a short-handed goal to tie the score with 5 minutes left.

Todd Martin of Urbandale-Des Moines led the West with two goals and two assists. Andy Byrkit of Valley-Dowling also scored two goals, and Widlund added a goal and two assists.

The East was led by Smith and Columbus teammates Jason Bloom and Dan Bloom, each of whom had one goal and two assists.
