

Four Metros make all-star squad

The state runner-up Sioux City Metros have landed four players on an Iowa High School Hockey League all-star team selected to compete in the annual Chicago Showcase, scheduled April 17-22.

The annual Chicago tournament includes prep all-star teams from 20 states and Iowa is taking part for the first time this year.

Selected for the Iowa team were forwards Brett Austin and T.J. Reinsch along with defensemen Brian Augustine and Bert Post, all from the Sioux City Metros.

The 25-member Iowa squad has conducted two of four scheduled weekend practice sessions in Ames and will face the Iowa State Junior Cyclones at 4 p.m. Saturday.

The afternoon contest in Ames will be followed by the Iowa Governor's Cup game at 7:30 p.m., matching the club hockey squads from Iowa State and Northern Iowa.
