

Iowa hockey team wins two

CHICAGO — The Iowa all-state hockey team “surprised” everyone with two wins in the Chicago Showcase Tournament over the weekend.

Iowa beat Pittsburgh 5-1 Friday and Colorado 4-3 on Saturday. The team finished the tournament with a 2-2 record.

“It was a pleasure to coach these kids,” said John Lloyd of Mason City, coach of the Iowa team. “We weren’t supposed to do very good out here and they surprised many people.”
