

8 metro All-Staters

K.C. Doland, goaltender for the Warriors who was voted MVP of the Iowa High School Hockey League tournament Sunday, was one of eight players from the two Waterloo teams named to the all-state team.

Columbus led the way with five selections, and the Warriors had three.

Selected as coach of the year by his peers was Dave Swick of the Warriors.

Also named from the Warriors was forward Tracy Henn and defenseman Jeff Frazee.

Columbus was represented on the team by forwards Justin Smith, Corey Simon and Ben MacLennan, along with defensemen Dan and Jason Bloom.

The Warriors' Chris McFarland, a defenseman, and forward Quinn Ernster were named honorable mention, as was forward Oscar Dios of Columbus.

Columbus was the recipient of the sportsmanship trophy.

Other all-staters selected by coaches' balloting were:

Sioux City—Brian Augustine, Brett Austin, Bert Post, Chris Sorum and T.J. Reinsch. Urbandale—Todd Martin, Scott Rast, Don Widlund, Todd Zwanziger. Valley-Dowling—Andy Byrkit, John Davis, Kyle Geiger and Nick Krueger. Ames—Geoff Will. Dubuque—Corey Courtney. Mason City—Chris Peterson.
