State champion Warriors hand out hockey honors

The Waterloo Warriors hockey team, the 1990 Iowa High School Hockey League champion, presented awards recently at a banquet held in honor of the team and cheerleaders. The event took place at the John Deere Supervisors' Club.

Jeff Frazee and Kirk Schoonover were named most valuable defensemen and Tracy Henn was selected the most valuable forward. Frazee won the Walt Kyle Award and Henn received the Gary Jensen Award. The two seniors shared the Butch Cook Scholarship Award given for scholastic achievement.

The varsity squad members picked Andy Gericke as the Most Improved Player, Quinn Ernster and Chris McFarland for the Playmaker Award, and goalie K.C. Doland as the Most Dedicated Player.

Doland was selected the Most Valuable Player of the state tournament.

Derek Hileman and Darin Johnson shared the sportsmanship award.

Junior varsity recognition awards were presented for the first time this year. Chad Fordyce was named most valuable player and goalie Jeff Glaspie received the award for the most improved player.

Coach Dave Swick selected Aaron Kaufman as first recipient of the "Dutch" Gericke Memorial Trophy.
