DES MOINES — Fueled by five goals by skaters from the Sioux City Metros, the West defeated the East 6-2 Tuesday night in the Iowa High School Hockey League All-Star Game.

Goalie Jeff Brogan of Sioux City worked 30 minutes of the 60-minute contest and held the East all-stars scoreless.

Meanwhile, all of four other Metros on the West squad, coached by Sioux City's Dave Davies, got into the scoring act.

T.J. Reinsch collected two goals and an assist to lead the winners. Dan Davies, Tracy Brunken and Brian Augustine added one goal apiece, with Davies also logging an assist and Chris Sorum picking up three assists.
