

Sioux City too much for Warriors at state hockey tourney, 6-2

SIOUX CITY — The Waterloo Warriors had only 12 shots on goal while losing to regular season and defending state tournament champion Sioux City 6-2 in the first round of the 16th Iowa High School Hockey state meet here Friday.

Waterloo had advanced to the first round of the tournament with a 3-2 preliminary round win over the Omaha Jr. Lancers Thursday night.

Against Sioux City, the Warriors were outshot 51-12, and 34-5 over the last two periods. The loss ended the Warriors' four-game win streak.

Sioux City took an early 1-0 lead on the strength of a Cory Roberts goal just 1:31 into the first period. Waterloo bounced back to take a 2-1 lead on a pair of unassisted goals by Benji Buckley and Chad Fordyce.

Sioux City dominated the rest of the way, scoring the game's final five goals.

The Warriors played a consolation game Saturday morning.
