

Junior Lancers Reign

The Omaha Junior Lancers have repeated as champions of the Iowa High School Hockey League Tournament by defeating the Des Moines Capitols 5-3 in Des Moines.

Tom Ogee, Lancer captain and center, was selected the tournament's most valuable player.

Ogee, a Bellevue West junior, scored a goal Sunday in the final, the last of three Omaha victories in the 11-team tournament. In earlier games, the Lancers beat Ames 9-2 and the Omaha Gladiators 7-4.

Lancer right wing Jed Ortmeyer scored a goal and had an assist in the championship game. Other Omaha goals in the final were scored by Scott

Mitchell, Nick Saldi and Steve Ziemba.
