

Metros contribute to All-Star win

AMES, Iowa — Several members of the Sioux City Metros varsity high school hockey team contributed to a 3-2 win by the West Division in the Iowa High School Hockey League All-Star game here Saturday.

Sioux City's Damon Keith played the second half of the game in goal for the West, making saves on 16 of 17 shots fired at him by the East All-Stars.

Chresten Jensen of the Metros assisted on the first goal for the West unit, and teammates Matt Andrews and Jason Augustine had assists on the second goal for the winners.