

West wins IHSHL all-star tilt

Several Sioux City Metros players contributed to the West's 7-4 victory over the East Saturday in the annual Iowa High School Hockey League's all-star game at the IBP Ice Center.

The contest was held as part of the IHSHL's junior varsity state tournament also being held this weekend at the IBP Ice Center.

Brent Sanders of the Metros scored two goals and Kyle Worner of Sioux City had a red-lighter in the victory. Brett Duncan of the Omaha Gladiators contributed two goals and Pat Gilihan and Mark Shoreman of Kansas City also had goals.

Drew Keller and Mason McKinney of the Des Moines Capitals, Jon Anderson of Mason City and Chad Cutsforth of Waterloo had goals for the East.

Dennis Soerart of Kansas City and Jake Hindermann of Sioux City split goaltending duties for the winning West team.

Sioux City's Greg Gill contributed three assists for the West and Metros teammates Robbie Lessard and Worner also had assists. Anderson had an assist for the East.

The league's junior varsity championship game is at 1 p.m. today at the IBP Ice Center.