

HOCKEY

Junior Lancers win league tourney

The Omaha Junior Lancers won their second straight Iowa High School Hockey League tournament championship last weekend with a 3-0 victory over the Des Moines Capitals in Dubuque, Iowa.

Ben Morris, who was named tournament MVP, was in goal for Sunday's title final and also picked up the shutout in a 1-0 triple-overtime victory over the Sioux City Metro on Saturday in the semifinals.

The Junior Lancers defeated host Dubuque in Friday's opener, 7-3, with Brandon Cutaia in goal for the Omaha team.

The Omaha team, which won the regular-season league title, finished its Iowa High School Hockey League season with a 35-1 record. The Junior Lancers' Chuck Nano was named league coach of the year.