

OAK LEAFS, CAPITALS

● The Iowa High School Hockey League adopted a new, more inclusive name for the 2006-07 season at its annual fall meeting. The group will become known the Midwest High School Hockey League. Three of the league's 12 teams are based outside of Iowa.

The Capitals and Oak Leafs compete in Des Moines.

● The league opens its 30th anniversary season Friday, Oct. 28 when the defending regular-season and state champion Des Moines Capitals play at Lincoln.
