

Metros finish seventh in state tournament

DES MOINES — Tyler Hansen's goal 41 seconds into overtime gave the Sioux City Metros a 5-4 victory over Waterloo in the seventh-place game of the Iowa High School Hockey League state tournament here Sunday.

Sioux City's Chad Corbett scored at 12:10 of the third period, tying the game at 4-4. Hansen then took assists from Nicholas Cownie and Daran Rudnick for the game-winning goal.

Marshall Tuttle tallied a goal and assist for the Metros, who closed their season with a 15-21 record. Tuttle tied the score at 1-1 with an unassisted goal in the first period, while Ben Schmidt (Chad Corbett and John Adam assists) put the Metros in front before the period ended.

After Waterloo once again deadlocked the contest, Nick Bauer scored with an assist from Lindsey LeGree at 11:12 of the second period, but Waterloo drew even again after two and took a 4-3 lead in the third period before Corbett's tying goal.

Josh Sachnoff picked up the victory in goal for Sioux City. Waterloo outshot the Metros 36-35.

The Des Moines Oak Leafs won the state championship with a 4-1 victory over Mason City in the title game.

Sioux City will compete in the junior varsity state tournament beginning Friday in Lincoln.
