

PREP HOCKEY

Mohawks fall to Omaha

URBANDALE — The Mason City Hockey Club dropped a 5-2 decision to the Omaha Junior Lancers on Friday in the opening round of the Midwest High School Hockey League tournament.

Omaha, which plays the Quad City Blues in the semifinals today, jumped out to a 2-1 lead after the first period.

Mason City received a first-period goal from Greg Hepperly and a third-period goal from Chris Jessen.

Mason City plays Kansas City in the consolation semifinals at 8 a.m. today.

OMAHA 5, MASON CITY 2

Omaha	2	1	2	—	5
Mason City	1	0	1	—	2

First period — MC: 1. Greg Hepperly (Spenser Poppinga) (power play) 6:23. O: 1. Russ Herting (Jace Hough, Mike Persigehl) (power play) 8:19. O: 2. Jonathan Williams (J.J. Stannard) 10:07.

Second period — O: 3. Hough (Andy Fanciullo) 6:53.

Third period — O: 4. Stannard (Williams, Matt Mason) 1:11. MC: 2. Chris Jessen (power play) 9:05. O: 5. Hough 14:14.