

Warriors win shootout; Weinke Coach of Year

DES MOINES — The Waterloo Warriors found the back of the net at just the right time.

The Warriors scored three third-period goals to push the game into overtime against the Lincoln Junior Stars. Neither team was able to score in the extra frame, and the game came down to a shootout.

Waterloo's Bryn Klein, Jacob Schutte and Tyler Mahncke all scored on the shootout, and Brian Dobes turned away all three Junior Stars attempts to pull out the Warriors' victory.

"The shootout was fun, we aren't in many of those," said Warrior head coach Shawn Weinke. "It was even better to come out on the winning side of it."

Schutte was able to put the Warriors on the board early, with a goal off assists by Jake Irey and Andrew Metcalf.

Jorgan Kontor scored two of his three goals in the first period to give the Junior Stars a 2-1 lead.

Weinke received a big surprise after the game. At the Midwest High School Hockey League banquet, he was named the Coach of the Year, as voted by the league's coaches.

"It was a big surprise," said Weinke. "It's not anything you go looking for, but it is nice to be recognized by your peers. I just worked hard and the guys worked hard all year."

The Warriors' Jake Irey was named to the all-league team, and netminder Brian Dobes finished runner-up for Goalie of the Year.
