

K.C. downs Metros

AMES, Iowa — For the fourth time this season the Kansas City Jr. Outlaws have defeated the Sioux City Metros hockey team.

The Outlaws scored two goals in the third period and handed the Metros a 3-0 setback in the first round of the Midwest High School Hockey League's varsity state tournament at the Ames/ISU Ice Arena Friday afternoon.

The Outlaws, second in the regular season standings, scored a power play goal, a short-handed goal and added an even-strength tally in the contest.

Outlaw goaltender Bryan Cote recorded the shutout by making 23 saves and Max Wiebrecht, Alex Steele (power play) and Matthew Uvodich (short handed) scored the Kansas City goals.

Kansas City advances to the state semifinals on Saturday against city rival Kansas City Stars.

Lee Noel made 35 saves in goal for Sioux City, which was out-shot in the game 38-23.

The Metros (18-11-2-2) will face Waterloo in a consolation semifinal at 8 a.m. today.
